RICARDO ROMO became the fifth president of The University of Texas at San Antonio in May 1999. As president, he leads one of the fastest-growing institutions of higher education in Texas and the nation. Under his leadership, UTSA is poised to become the state's premier research university.

The Col. W.T. Bondurant, Sr. Distinguished Humanitarian Award is presented each year to a community leader who exemplifies the school's most cherished values: honesty, respect, pride in achievement and service to others. This award recognizes an individual whose accomplishments embody these humanitarian traits that everyone admired in Colonel W. T. Bondurant Sr., who served as The Academy's Head of School from 1927 to 1943.
